PRESS RELEASE

SECURITY SECTOR WARNS AGAINST ANYTHING THAT WILL DISRUPT THE COUNTRY'S PEACE AND STABILITY

Freetown (August 24, 2020)- Intelligence estimate indicates that individuals, known and unknown, have been engaging in activities including making pronouncements that are tantamount to disrupting the peace and stability of Sierra Leone. The Security Sector wishes to assure the general public of its avowed commitment to protect the citizens, their well-being and the integrity of Sierra Leone.

In the spirit of inclusive and supportive security, everyone is encouraged to remain law abiding and report any suspicious activity that has the tendency to undermine national security.

In view of the foregoing, the Security Sector of Sierra Leone wishes to assure the general public that it is in full control and people are encouraged to go about their normal business without any cause for alarm.

Signed:

Brig. Gen. (rtd.) JAO Jah-Tucker
(National Security Coordinator)
For and on behalf of the Security Sector
