PRESS STATEMENT WITH REGARDS THE SUSPENSION OF THE AUDITOR GENERAL AND THE DEPUTY AUDITOR GENERAL

The Council of Churches in Sierra Leone (CCSL) has been following with keen interest developments following the indefinite suspension of the Auditor General, Mrs. Lara Taylor –Pearce and the Deputy Auditor General, Mr. Tamba Momoh from office.

Our concern has been slightly lessened by the appointment of a special tribunal as per our constitution- The Constitution of Sierra Leone Act No. 6 of 1991.

As a Council concerned with the respect for human rights and natural justice, we call for a speedy commencement of the tribunal proceedings. We hope the procedures will move on without any hindrances and be transparent so that the people of Sierra Leone will be fully informed of all the ramifications surrounding this unprecedented event.

It is our fervent prayer that whatever occurs during this tribunal will be in the best interest of every Sierra Leonean and will further strengthen the peace and unity deserving of all.

May truth and justice prevail! Long live Mama Sierra Leone
