FREETOWN, SIERRA LEONE

NEWS BRIEF

22nd March 2022

Just in!!

The National Civil Registration Authority (NCRA) following a Cabinet approval on 2nd March, 2022 today 22nd March 2022, secured a Parliamentary Ratification for the production of Securitised Identity Cards (National & ECOWAS Compliant), Identity Verification System and Public Key Infrastructure in Sierra Leone.

The Authority is also pleased to announce that access to ID Cards will be decentralised across Districts where citizens and other residents in Sierra Leone will have the opportunity to obtain their ID Cards from their respective Districts thus easing the burden of movement to Freetown on our people.

The event took place in the Well of Parliament at Tower Hill, Freetown.

Details will follow later
