PRESS RELEASE

The Sierra Leone Teachers Union (SLTU), in collaboration with our sub-associations; namely the Conference of Principals of Secondary Schools (CPSS), the National Council of Head Teachers (NACOH), the Council of Heads of Technical and Vocational Institutions (CHTVI) and the Nursery Schools Association (NSA), on Monday the 25th April, 2022 held a meeting with the Minister of Basic and Senior Secondary Education and the Chairman of the Teaching Service Commission.

The meeting discussed amongst others; the immediate recommencement of negotiations not later than May, 2022 between the Sierra Leone Teachers Union (SLTU) and the government regarding increase of Salaries, allowances and other terms and conditions of service for teachers.

Against this backdrop, the union encourages all teachers to continue rendering their invaluable services in the interest of our children.

The Union stands ready to ensure that the terms and conditions of service befit the teaching profession.

We are pleased to inform our general membership that the SLTU leadership with support from the Minister of Basic and Senior Secondary Education and the Chairman of the Teaching Service Commission secured the release of the teachers arrested in Freetown and in Bo.

The union is appealing to our teachers to operate within the ambit of the law and be law abiding whilst also encouraging law enforcement authorities to execute their duties with restraint.

We thank all teachers for their continued patience during these difficult times.

Long Live SLTU!

Long Live Teacher Solidarity!!

Long Live the Republic of Sierra Leone!!!
